Bangalore

The humble petition of the Revenue Branch of the deputy Comrs office Bangalore district respectfully shewth.

That the Revenue Head accountant of the Bangalore deputy Comrs office has been appointed to act as deputy auditor of Serugapatam in the arrangement sanctioned consequent on the grant of 2½ months privilege leave to the Circle auditor of Yedatore taluk

The deputy Comrs Bangalore district in making acting arrangements to fill up the Head accountants place has laid much stress on Govt notification no 3 of 2nd April 1888.

In this arrangement the petitioner ought to have got the Head accountants place being the Revenue Head Gumasta on Rs 50 a month to him that were it not for the Govt notification no 3 quoted above

he would have given the petitioner
the Head accountant's place.

That the non-working of a single branch of the Local Service examination in the case of long standing and hard worked officials should stand in the way of their legitimate promotion is hard! As a matter of fact actual experience in the work which is the real qualification for its efficient discharge will count for nothing in arrangements like the one now made.

Under these circumstances the petitioner begs that Govt will be pleased to give him encouragement by favourably considering his claim and save him from the humiliation of a junior being put over him.

Petitioner begs to remain
Most Respectfully Sir
Your most obedient & humble servant

26th March 1896
Mysore

M. Padmanabha Rao

Revenue Head Assistant
Deputy Comrs Office
Mysore District

N.B. The Deputy Commr's Endorsement to be forwarded.

The petitioner submits that it is not the object of Govt in issuing the notification asked upon by the Govt Servants interests the claims of deserving experienced hardworked and long standing public servants who have not been able to complete the prescribed examinations owing chiefly to want of time on account of heavy office work, by giving rapid promotions to a junior over the heads of such faithfully experienced seniors merely because the junior has completed the prescribed test.

In the present instance the claims of the petitioner who draws Rs 60 a month has been superseded and one on Rs 50 has been appointed to act for Rs 70. This could have been justifiable if a junior in service who drew Rs 60 and who had completed the required tests had been appointed.

The petitioner states that another circumstance in his favour is the fact that he has the good fortune of securing the Deputy Comrs good opinion regarding his efficiency and that the higher Govt

lent indefinitely for him a minimum Rs 50 a month by the Accountant has been appointed as acting Head Accountant.
The Petitioner has passed the matriculation the Lower test of the
and A C S. examinations of the Madras University and the Revenue Account test at the Mysore Local Service examinations held from 1893 and has put in an unblemished Superior Service of 13 years drawing a salary of Rs 50 and more since August 1889.
The only reason assigned for superseding him is that he has not passed the Criminal branch of the Local Service Exam
The Petitioner was not able to get out of this so called stumbling block owing to heavy work and constant travelling which hardly gives any leisure hours to Revenue Head Munsiffs for study more especially in the Mysore Province.
The duties of the Revenue Head Accountant does not require any knowledge of Criminal law and the petitioner has passed all tests required for an Accountant and moreover he has performed the duties of the Head Accountant on previous occasion.

The Deputy Commissioner
Mysore District.

Respected Sir

In the arrangements made to fill up temporarily the post of Revenue Head Accountant in the District office, the Dy. Commr drawing Rs 15 less than myself was put above me on the ground that I have not passed the Criminal branch of the Local Service examination. I feel very much aggrieved by this supersession I have no doubt that your honor entertains favourable opinion regarding my efficiency for the vacant place as you were kind enough to say so to me. The only shortcoming enforced by your honor for my being given the post is the Govt Notification no 3 of 12th April 85. In my humble opinion the notification does not appear to have been issued for rigid enforcement in cases like the present on it is not an entire waiver in as much as you can make exception by reserving Govt in the case of Revenue officials.

Though the present vacancy is a temporary one I contend for promotion for the simple reason that there should be no presidence of such exception in future.

I respectfully beg that your honour will kindly direct the said Govt notification to be cancelled & my promotion be effected that I may kindly direct my appeal to Govt herein enclosed & thus enable me to feel some satisfaction after my claims have been overlooked here for a technical reason.

Begging to be excused for the intrusion

GENERAL.

NOTIFICATION.

The 12th April 1888.

No. 8.—The claims of Candidates for admission to the Superior Government Service in the Revenue and General Departments shall, in the case of appointments for which no special departmental tests are prescribed, be regulated according to the following rules :—

I. Claims of Candidates for admission shall be accorded preference in the following order in filling appointments, of which the salary is Rs. 30 or less per mensem :—

(a) Graduates of any Indian University.

(b) Candidates who have passed the First Examination in Arts in any Indian University or in Civil Engineering, or the final examination of the Agricultural School at Madras.

(c) Candidates who have passed the Matriculation Examination of the Madras University.

(d) Candidates who hold a diploma of proficiency in Sanskrit from the Sanskrit College at Mysore, and have also passed the Mysore Local Vernacular Examination or the Middle School Examination, taking Kanarese as the only or optional language.

(e) Candidates who have passed the Mysore Local Vernacular Examination or the Middle School Examination of Madras.

[Note.—1. All Candidates specified above must be able to read Kanarese manuscripts fluently.

2. Candidates specified in clauses (d) & (e) will not be eligible for appointments for which a knowledge of English is necessary, unless they possess such knowledge.

3. After 1st April 1888, no vacancy the salary of which exceeds Rs. 15 per mensem shall be filled up with men not qualified in one of the ways specified in this Rule, except upon the express ground (to be recorded by the officer making the appointment) that no Candidate so qualified is, after due enquiry, found to be forthcoming.]

II. Notwithstanding anything contained in Rule I, the claims to promotion of competent officials of approved service of not less than 5 years, shall receive every consideration, when vacancies occur of appointments the salary of which does not exceed Rs. 30 a month; as among officials with service not exceeding 5 years, or where no official with longer service is considered sufficiently qualified, the order of preference laid down in Rule I shall be observed.

III. In promotions to appointments the salary of which exceeds Rs. 30 per month, the following order of preference shall be observed :—

(a) Graduates or non-graduates who have passed the Criminal and Revenue Tests of the Departmental Examination prescribed in Notification No. 215, dated 29th January 1885, according to the date of passing.

(b) Candidates specified in clauses (a) and (b) of Rule I, who have not passed the Departmental Examination aforesaid, in the order of preference given in that Rule.

(c) Others.

Provided that the preferential promotion of the Candidates not qualified by Departmental Examinations and referred to in clause (b) of this Rule, means promotion in preference to other Candidates (also not qualified by Departmental Examination) of similar standing, and not exceptionally rapid promotion of a junior, as of right over the heads of unpassed seniors of long and approved services; and provided further that all preferential claims to promotion are subject to the condition that the claimant has proved himself deserving thereof by efficiency and good conduct in his previous service.

IV. No vacancies shall, as a rule, be permanently filled up by the admission of new men, unless there has been duly published a notice giving at least 15 days' previous notice of their existence.

V. Every Officer, who has the power to nominate or appoint to any office in the public service, shall maintain a register of Candidates qualified under these Rules; all applications entered in such register, and all new applications shall be duly considered when making a nomination or appointment.

By Order,

R. VIJAYINDRA RAO,
Chief Secretary.

But all this has counted for nothing seeing that the Anglo-Vernacular clerk working now with the Assistant Commissioner in French Rocks on only Rs 35 a month has been nominated for the Deputy Accountants place solely on the ground that he has passed the criminal test also of the local Service.

Your humble petitioner begs permission to state that without a broad and sympathetic interpretation of the rules of promotion the fate of hardworking officials is unenviable. The duties of the Deputy Accountant do not require any knowledge of criminal law nor is obligatory.

Your humble petitioner can scarcely mention what the work in this the heaviest of all the districts in the Province leaves very little time

Most Honored Sir,

With profound respect and humble submission I beg to bring the following few lines to your kind consideration.

I have been now drawing a salary of Rupees 50/. Before this I served in different capacities such as Taluk Shirastadar, Police Head Munshi and Police Inspector. My service is 29 years and I have passed the Supreme Local service Tests (Revenue and Criminal)

My Children, my old Mother and myself have been put to much inconvenience owing to the loss of my wife as I have no other relations in this district.

I therefore most humbly and respectfully beg that I may be kindly recommended for promotion to any one of the appointments now vacant in the Mysore district. If owing to my bad luck I cannot succeed in getting any promotion, I may at least be transferred to any of the Taluk Sirishtadari in the Mysore district on my present pay.

For which act of benevolence I shall as in duty bound ever pray the Almighty for your honors long life and property.
